DATE: 16 January 1952

FROM :Deputy Comptroller

SUBJECT:New CIA Building

TIME :0845

DATE :16 January 1952

PLACE :Office of Assistant Deputy Director (Administration - General)

THOSE PRESENT: Col. L.K. White, ADD/A (General)
Mr. Walter Pforzheimer, Legislative Counsel
[] Deputy Comptroller
Mr. W.L. Peel, Chief of General Services
[] Assistant to the Director
Administrative Service

1. Colonel White reported the results of a meeting which Mr. Wolf had with the Director of CIA concerning the proposal for a new CIA building. The Director of CIA handed down the following decisions to Mr. Wolf:

a. The proposed Langley site and the proposed Suitland site will not be satisfactory and should not be further considered.

b. Our discussions should be with respect to the Nevius Tract, and the Soldier's Home proposal should be held back and only presented for consideration if the proposal with respect to the Nevius Tract fall through.

c. The Office of Administrative Services should immediately take steps to meet with PBS in order to develop plans consistent with a building to cost no more than [] CIA personnel.
